RULES AND RESPONSIBILITIES FOR RENTING
DRESBACH PARK PAVILLION AND GAZEBO

(KEEP THIS FOR YOUR REFERENCE)

1. When you leave, the premises shall be clean and in the same condition as before you used it. Tables and chairs should be in the same position as before. Any tables and chairs that were put up should be returned to the place of storage.
2. You are responsible for removing your own trash from the premises.
3. If you use any other Township property, you must clean and put away.
4. All decorations shall be taken down and removed after an event. No nail holes are permitted on any structure at the pavilion or gazebo
5. After an event, all items must be promptly removed from the pavilion and gazebo. Failure to remove items after 48 hours will result in a forfeiture of your property and the Township will assume possession of property.
6. Dresbach Township shall not be responsible for any or all property and personal injury that may occur to the party renting the Pavillion or Gazebo or their guests. Renter(s) shall hold Dresbach Township harmless from the above described liability and defend the Township in any such action.

Rental for the Park Pavillion and Gazebo is $0. Please inspect the area at the Park Pavillion and Gazebo that they have been found to be clean, without damages and all furniture is back to its original position. If the Park Pavillion and Gazebo is not found to be clean, there are missing items, property damage, or furniture has not been set back, the resident signing this agreement will be responsible for cost to repair or replace. Any cleaning or set up by Township employees will be billed at $25.30 per hour.

We hope you enjoy your celebration at our beautiful park. Please follow the above instructions so we can continue to provide this area for everyone's enjoyment.
